THE DESTINATION

Host your event in a small town that boasts big charm. St. Lucie County is located on the south/central east coast of Florida, a two hour drive southeast of Orlando and a two hour drive north of Miami. It is home to the historic City of Fort Pierce, the new and vibrant city of Port St. Lucie and the unspoiled beaches of Hutchinson Island. The Havert L. Fenn Center is located in the heart of Fort Pierce, just minutes away from 21 miles of uncrowded beaches, over 11,000 acres of parks and preserves, world record fishing opportunities, horseback riding on the beach, boating along pristine waterways, NY Mets Spring Training baseball, championship golf at PGA Village and other top-notch golf courses, a charming and award-winning waterfront downtown, year round arts and cultural activities, a rich history and so much more. Over 1,000 hotel rooms are located within 5 miles of the facility.

The Fenn Center is located on Virginia Avenue in Fort Pierce and is easily accessible from US Highway 1, Interstate 95 or the Florida Turnpike. Driving distances from these main roadways are minimal.

- 2 miles west of US Highway 1 • 3 miles east of I-95
- 4 miles east of the Florida Turnpike
